Extension excursion options

Day 10: Quidi Vidi Village & Brewery

$49/$59* (3.5 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Stroll the streets of the charming Quidi Vidi Village, a historic fishing town located along Newfoundland and Labrador's northeastern coast. Pay a visit to the Plantation Craft Studios where you can watch local artisans create a variety of handmade items, from pottery to woodcut prints, and take some trinkets home for yourself. Continue on to The Rooms museum and enjoy free time to explore the many exhibits that highlight the region's history, culture, artwork, and wildlife. Cap off the day with a visit to a local brewery and enjoy a tasting of some house made, craft beers.

Day 11: Newfoundland Whale Watching Cruise

$125/$135* (2 hours, departs in the morning)

Discover the waters around Newfoundland and immerse yourself in local insight during a sailing excursion out of St. John's. The Atlantic is the feeding area for a variety of wildlife, so keep your eyes open for humpback whales, puffins, and other seabirds as you float past stunning icebergs. Take in seaside views of Cabot Tower, which is an iconic heritage building that sits atop Signal Hill National Historic Site. Then, sail through "The Narrows," a thin channel that has served as a natural defense against enemy ships entering St. John's Harbour throughout history. Please note: This excursion is seasonal and runs mid-June through August. This is when icebergs and whales are usually seen. Please be sure to bring an extra layer in the event of cold weather, and prepare yourself for the possibility of feeling seasick.
