Day 2: Distillery District Brewery Tour & Dinner

$149/$159* (4 hours, departs in the evening, includes dinner)

Filled with cobbled streets, indie boutiques, and the largest collection of Victorian-era industrial buildings in North America, Toronto's historic Distillery District is a hit with locals and tourists alike. Find out why as you walk to a brewery, where you'll take a tour and learn about the beer-making process. Pass towering fermenting tanks, pint in hand, before settling down to a flight of house brews. Cap your evening with an included dinner at a local restaurant, served with beer or wine. (If you'd like, spend a little more time wandering the car-free streets of the Distillery District and pop into any shops that catch your eye.)

Day 3: The Niagara Falls Experience

$135/$145* (8 hours, departs in the morning)

Journey to the border of Canada and the United States to experience the thundering beauty of Niagara Falls. Niagara is comprised of three individual cataracts, which plunge at a rate of over 100,000 gallons per second. You'll get an up-close look at this famous landmark as you enjoy a Hornblower boat ride into the mist at the base of the falls. Then eat lunch and discover the surrounding area on your own before driving to Niagara-on-the-Lake. This quaint town is home to local fairs and boutique stores, which you can enjoy during an hour of free time. Then, board the bus and head back to Toronto for a free evening. Please note: This excursion is seasonal and runs May through mid-November only. Layered clothing in the event of cooler weather is recommended for this excursion. Please be prepared for the possibility of seasickness.

Day 5: "Oh Canada Eh!?" Show & Dinner

$99/$109* (2.5 hours, departs in the evening, includes dinner)

Get a lighthearted look at (and a hearty bite of) Canadian culture, courtesy of "Oh Canada Eh!?" This two-hour dinner show celebrates songs written or made famous by Canadians—all played by a live band and sung by a rotating cast of national icons. A Mountie, Anne of Green Gables, and a host of other characters will serve you an authentic Canadian meal as they perform, pairing plates like roast beef and fried fish with belly-busting laughs.

Day 7: Scenic Quebec: Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré & Montmorency Falls

$69/$79* (8 hours, departs in the afternoon)

The Côte-de-Beaupré is famous for two landmarks; on this outing, you'll hit both, with an extra stop sandwiched in between. Begin at the rumbling Montmorency Falls, a cascade that stands almost 100 feet taller than Niagara Falls (and makes for a great photo op). Soak in views of the waterfall and its namesake park, then continue up the St. Lawrence River to the Albert Gilles Copper Art Museum. Take off on a guided tour of its exhibits, learning about the fine art of coppersmithing and watching a metalworking demonstration. Finally, head to the Basilica of Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré and marvel at this holy place. Named after the mother of the Virgin Mary, this sanctuary has drawn pilgrims from around the world since the 1600s—and has reportedly been the site of multiple healing miracles. Please note: This excursion may involve walking up inclines and stairs, so we recommend wearing comfortable shoes.

Day 9: Walking Food Tour of Old Montreal

$119 (4 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Taste some of Montreal's culinary specialties as you follow a local expert on a walking tour through the city's trendiest food districts. Montreal's cuisine is varied, imaginative, multicultural, and delicious, and you'll learn about the culinary scene as you try some of the area's best fare. Please note: This excursion will involve about 2.5 miles of walking, so comfortable sneakers are recommended. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked at least 20 days prior to departure.

Day 11: Mont-Tremblant: Scenic Landscapes & Gondola Ride

$155 (6 hours, departs in the morning)

Discover the quaint village of Mont-Tremblant, which is nestled in Quebec's Laurentian Mountains and known for its many ski resorts. Start your day with a scenic gondola ride to the top of the highest mountain peak. Get an overview of the area and admire sweeping views of the stunning countryside, which is dotted with charming, colorful buildings. Then, return to the valley floor to enjoy free time for the rest of the day. Visit a spa or a gallery, go shopping, golfing, or canoeing, or hop in a dune buggy for a ride—the activities offered in this picturesque town are almost endless. Please note: This excursion is seasonal and runs from May through September. There will be some uneven terrain and inclines, so comfortable walking shoes are recommended. We recommend bringing warm clothing in the event of cooler weather. This excursion requires advance reservation and must be booked by 20 days prior to departure.
