Verdon Gorge Region → 1 night

Day 4: Verdon Gorge Region via Moustiers-Sainte-Marie

Included meals: breakfast, dinner

Stop in the medieval village of Moustiers-Sainte-Marie this morning. You'll have free time to explore the medieval streets, see the vaulted passages, and eat lunch.

Travel to the Verdon Gorge, the Grand Canyon of Europe, and set off on a hike with your Tour Director.

- Start in La Palud-sur-Verdon and hike along the dramatic Verdon Gorge.
- Take in views of the turquoise-hued water of the Verdon River below.
- Admire the green foliage cascading down the towering, limestone canyon walls.

Tonight, indulge in a gastronomic experience at La Table de Pauline where you'll dine on a curated menu. As you dine, you'll be introduced to the quintessential flavors, scents, and colors of Provençal cuisine.

Avignon → 3 nights

Day 5: Avignon via Roussillon

Included meals: breakfast, dinner

En route to Avignon, stop to explore Roussillon with your Tour Director. You'll take an hour-long walk past the colorful red and yellow sandstone rocks of the town's open-air ochre mines. Continue on to Avignon and set off on a walking tour led by your Tour Director.

- See the famous Pont Saint-Bénézet, the bridge that inspired the French folk tune On the Bridge of Avignon.
- Pass the Papal Palace to see where Pope Clement V reigned during the 14th century.
- Stroll through the historic Old Town, surrounded by the city's original medieval walls.

This evening, sit down for an included dinner with your group.

Please note: Travelers should feel comfortable walking through some steep areas and some stairs with little to no shade. We recommend proper footwear with good grip and clothing to protect from the sun.

Day 6: Sightseeing tour of Pont du Gard & Uzès

Included meals: breakfast

Head to Vers-Pont-du-Gard and explore the area with your Tour Director

- See artifacts, virtual renderings, and life-sized displays at the Pont du Gard Museum.
- Walk along the Pont du Gard, the region's famed, UNESCO-listed Roman aqueduct.
- View the Esplanade and the prehistoric Saltpeter Cave.

Then, make your way to the small, quiet town of Uzès. This town is one of southern France's hidden gems, and you'll have time to explore at your leisure.

Enjoy a free evening in Avignon or add an excursion.

Day 3: Evening in Monaco

$135/$145* (6 hours, departs in the evening)

Spend an evening in Monaco, a tiny principality that's world-renowned for its luxuriousness. Ruled by the Grimaldis, Europe's oldest royal family, Monaco has retained its independence for more than 700 years. Your Tour Director introduces you to the Old Town, which is perched atop the Rock of Monaco. This 203-foot-tall monolith overlooks the Mediterranean Sea and is part of the Monaco-Ville quarter, the oldest of the country's four quarters. While here, you'll stop and view the outside of the Royal Palace. Next, head to the Monte Carlo Casino where you'll have plenty of free time inside the world-famous casino with an included drink. Please note: Travelers under the age of 18 are not permitted to enter the casino. Travelers must abide by dress code restrictions to enter the casino, and passports are required for entrance to the Casino.

Day 6: Châteauneuf-du-Pape Wine Tasting & Dinner

$139/$149* (5 hours, departs in the evening with dinner)

During tonight's excursion, leave Avignon and travel to Chateauneuf-du-Pape, a region boasting 13 different varieties of grapes. At a local wine cellar, you'll be invited to sample several of the region's most distinctive vintages. After your tasting, sit down for an included dinner at a local restaurant featuring a selection of Provençal dishes, then make your way back to Avignon.

Day 9: Provençal Dinner & Wine Tasting

$135/$145* (6 hours, departs in the evening, dinner included)

Travel to a rustic Provençal village outside of Aix-en-Provence. Start your evening with a tasting of red, white, and rosé wines at a vineyard and learn how each one is produced. Then, enjoy dinner at a local restaurant featuring the traditional herb-accented Provençal dishes, which the region is known for.

Day 9: Coastal Cassis: Calanques Cruise & Walk

$85/$95* (7 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Discover the seaside village of Cassis on the Côte d'Azur today. Ride a small train to the center of the hillside town, where you'll enjoy free time to explore. Board a boat and take a cruise through Cassis Harbor to soak in beautiful vistas of the surrounding coastline and calanques, narrow fjord-like inlets carved into the white limestone. Then, take in stunning views of the Mediterranean Sea during a hillside walk above Cap Canaille. Along the way, make stops to snap photos of the scenic harbor and calanques. Please note: This excursion is weather-dependent. Travelers should expect to walk one mile and we recommend bringing clothes that can be easily layered. From October through April, the small train will be replaced by a bus transfer to the city center.

Extension excursion options

Day 13: Haute-Savoie: Gorges du Fier & Château de Menthon

$115/$125* (5.5 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Travel just outside of Annecy to Fier Gorge, which has been carved out by the River Fier over thousands of years. Walk through the narrow canyon on a footbridge, viewing the stunning rock formations and unique geological features that surround you. Then, continue on to the village of Vaulx, where you'll visit Menthon-Saint-Bernard Castle, the inspiration for the castle in Disney's Sleeping Beauty. Afterward, sit down to lunch at a local restaurant before heading back to Annecy. Please note: This excursion is seasonal and runs from April through September. The terrain you will be walking on during this excursion is mostly flat with a few steep steps.
